Team/Department:	Bedspace Residential Children's Home Services
Reports to:	Deputy CH Manager/Registered Manager	Location:	Brown Edge, Staffordshire/Alsager, Cheshire
Appointment period:	BANK	Hours	Bank position - No fixed hours

Job Purpose

A fantastic opportunity to be involved in the provision of responsive care and support, to children and young people who have complex emotional and social needs using a parenting approach to ensure children and young people are safe, well and cared for.

You will be working in a small children's home, looking after up to 3 children and young people at a time.

The position involves developing supportive and positive relationships with the children and young people treating them all with understanding, dignity, kindness and respect. You will provide advice, assistance and support to the children and young people. You will be a positive role model for them and work closely with them to address their difficulties and achieve their optimum potential.

You will be expected to support and care for children and young people with histories of attachment disruption and developmental trauma, often presenting in emotional and behavioural difficulties. Our goal is to ensure that the children and young people have a positive and enjoyable time whilst in a loving environment where their safety and wellbeing is prioritised.

About You

Can you nurture the talents and interests of children and young people and support them in areas of developmental capability, such as being able to make good choices, finding interests and activities that give children and young people we care for a feeling of mastery and power?

Do you want to be supported by a strong management team with an excellent reputation in enabling the development and progress of children and young people who have complex needs?

For a successful application, you'll need to have an understanding of the complex interdependencies of mental health, developmental trauma, substance misuse and offending behaviour. Being able to reflect upon your own emotional responses and the responses of others will be essential in order to adopt a professional, creative and compassionate approach to problem solving, getting and keeping people engaged and demonstrating empathy. You promote the rights, responsibilities and informed choice of the people receiving the service.

You can adapt to changing and emerging needs, demonstrating flexibility and resilience in challenging situations. You have a knowledge of Bedspace and a belief in its values and principles.

You're experienced in data collection, administration and recording procedures, with the ability to maintain accurate case notes. You have demonstrable skills in using Microsoft Office applications. You are professional and values led with integrity, inclusivity and respect for diversity, with an ability to work in uncertainty and maintain a positive approach.

You have an ability and commitment to working with vulnerable children and young people and families with complex needs, in a way that encourages their participation. the skills of a strong negotiator and have
